Subject: Statement of Support of the Georgia International Law Enforcement Exchange (GILEE)

For over 45 years, the Hispanic American Police Command Officers Association (HAPCOA) has served as leading national law enforcement organization focused on the future of law enforcement representing Hispanic men and women in command level positions within municipal, county, state, university and federal agencies.

HAPCOA recognizes that the purpose of the Georgia International Law Enforcement Exchange (GILEE) is to enhance law enforcement leadership development and homeland security. GILEE works continuously to improve public safety by enhancing inter-agency cooperation, partnership, and professional educational training among international law enforcement communities. GILEE has provided more than 470 programs and produced more than 1,700 graduates.

HAPCOA, like GILEE, supports and recognizes the professional benefits obtained when we provide international training, exposure and liaison building to its members with a yearly training symposium that has expanded its reach internationally.

HAPCOA applauds the work of GILEE in promoting the professional development of law enforcement executives.

Sincerely,

Anthony Chapa
